Major changes, additions, or modifications to the tax credit, such as those requiring extensive staff time and Board approval

These are non-refundable application fee, on a tiered basis based on the number of new or retained full-time jobs. Beyond application fees, the Authority sets rates for one-time approval fees; one-time issuance fees, which are paid at the point of initial certification; and annual servicing fees, which are paid for the years in which the Authority is monitoring the project; as well as fees for tax credit transfers, project modifications, and project terminations. All fees are sized based on the number of jobs associated with the project, with larger fee levels for larger projects. In addition, costs associated with certain third-party analyses or reviews utilized to assess the application may be passed along directly to applicants.
